WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY

Introduction

Feedback by employees/associates is increasingly becoming popular to ensure better governance standards and transparency in the running of the organizations. Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has also framed a separate Protected Disclosure Scheme, wherein employees, customers, and stakeholders of the any bank can lodge a complaint with RBI on the functioning of a bank.

Further, the Bank has formulated its whistleblower policy in compliance with following directions from RBI Guidelines (no # RBI/2006-2007/328, DO DBS. FrMC. No. BC.5/23.02.011/2006-07) dated April 18, 2007 on Introduction of 'Protected Disclosures Scheme for Private Sector and Foreign Banks and Section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013 as well as SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Amendment) Regulations, 2018 also requires establishment of a vigil mechanism. This Whistle Blower Policy shall govern the subject matters described herein below, however, shall always be subject to applicability of laws and regulations as prevalent from time to time.

In line with above, the Bank had developed a scheme titled "RBL Bank Protected Disclosure Scheme", which is currently in force.

The proposed comprehensive Whistle Blower Policy shall replace and supersede all the existing policies on the subject matter.

1.0 Preface

- 1.1 RBL Bank Limited, ("the Bank") believes in the conduct of the affairs of its constituents in a fair and transparent manner by adopting highest standards of professionalism, honesty, integrity and ethical behaviour.
- 1.2 The Bank is committed to developing a culture where it is safe for all Whistle Blower/s to raise concerns about any poor or unacceptable practice, wrong doings and any incidence of misconduct.
- 1.3 The purpose of this policy is to provide a framework to promote responsible and secure whistle blowing. It protects the Whistle Blower wishing to raise a concern about irregularities within the Bank.
- 1.4 The policy neither releases Whistle Blowers from their duty of confidentiality in the course of their work, nor is it a route for taking up a grievance about a personal situation.
- 1.5 This policy will be posted on the Bank's intranet for the information of its employees. In addition, an abridged version shall be posted on the Bank's website.

Applicability

- 1.6 This Policy is applicable to all employees (including interns and trainees) and Directors of the Bank, third parties such as suppliers, contractors and vendors, of the Bank and also any other stakeholder working on behalf of the Bank not included in the above.
- 1.7 The Policy has been drawn up so that Whistle Blowers are eligible to make Protected Disclosure. The Protected Disclosure may be on areas of concern affecting the Bank and are summarized in paragraph 5.

2.0 Definitions

- 2.1 “Whistle Blower” means a Director, an Employee of the Bank and includes a Vendor/Contractor/Supplier who are dealing with the Bank, or any other person who, makes a Protected Disclosure under this Policy. The Whistleblower/s are not investigators or finders of the facts; neither can they determine the appropriate corrective or remedial action that may be warranted. The Whistle Blower’s role is that of a reporting party only.
- 2.2 “Subject” means a person or group of persons against or in relation to whom a Protected Disclosure is made or evidence gathered during the course of an investigation.
- 2.3 “Audit Committee” means the Audit Committee constituted by the Board of Directors of the Bank in accordance with the provisions of Reserve Bank of India’s guidelines and Companies Act, 2013.
- 2.4 “Bank/RBL Bank” means RBL Bank Limited.
- 2.5 “Employee” means every employee of the Bank including contractual staff.
- 2.6 “Third Parties” means Suppliers, Contractors and Vendors dealing with the Bank
- 2.7 “Disciplinary Action” means any action that can be taken on the completion of / during the investigation, including but not limited to, a warning, recovery of financial losses incurred by the Bank, suspension from official duties or any such action as deemed fit, considering the gravity of the matter.
- 2.8 “Protected Disclosure” means a concern raised by a written/oral communication, whether by letter or email or oral made in good faith that discloses or demonstrates information that may evidence unethical or improper activity or behaviour or violation of Code Of Conduct by Directors/Employees/Third Parties with respect to the Bank (as described more particularly in Clause 5). Protected Disclosures should be factual and not speculative or in the nature of a conclusion and should contain as much specific information as possible to allow for a proper assessment on the nature and extent of the concern and the urgency of an investigation. Vigilance Unit to formalize Verbal Whistle Blower complaints by seeking approval of Chief of Internal Vigilance for conducting investigation.

2.9 “Reviewing Authority” means MDAC (Management Disciplinary Action Committee).

3.0 The Guiding Principles

3.1 In order to ensure that Whistle Blower Policy is adhered to, and to assure that the concern/disclosure will be acted upon seriously, the Bank will:

- a. Ensure that the Whistle Blower and/or the person processing the Protected Disclosure is not victimized;
- b. Treat victimization of Whistle Blower as a serious matter including initiating disciplinary action against person(s) causing or allowing victimization of Whistle Blower;
- c. Ensure complete confidentiality of identity of Whistle Blower, unless as required under applicable laws and regulations;
- d. Not attempt to conceal evidence of the Protected Disclosure;
- e. Take disciplinary action, if any one destroys or conceals evidence of the Protected Disclosure made/to be made;
- f. Provide an opportunity of being heard to the persons involved especially to the Subject;
- g. However, reporting a concern does not automatically provide immunity to the Whistle Blower, if the person himself / herself is a party to the offense.
- h. The process includes Compliance to Principal of Natural Justice as per RBI Master Direction¹ before declaring, concluding and reporting persons (Bank employees, Third Party Service Providers and Professionals such as architects, valuers, chartered

4.2 Whistle Blower Policy should not be used as a route for raising malicious or unfounded allegations against colleagues.

4.3 Exclusions

The following types of complaints are excluded from the scope of this Policy:

- a. Repetitive complaints which are largely unsubstantiated and/or without any value addition
- b. Complaints which are vague, ambiguous and do not contain specific and verifiable information so as to establish a prima facie case for investigation.
- c. Complaints which are personal (including concerning appraisals, compensation, promotions, rating etc.) and are not related to the business, operations, or affairs of the Bank.

5.0 Protection

5.1 Protection to Whistle Blower:

- a) Bank will protect Whistle Blower from Unfair Treatment by virtue of his/her having reported a Protected Disclosure under this Policy.

- b) The Bank, as a policy, condemns any kind of discrimination, harassment, victimization or any other unfair employment practice adopted against Whistle Blower.
 - c) Whistle Blower will be protected against any unfair practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation or termination/suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, discrimination, any type of harassment, biased behaviour or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle Blower's right to continue to perform his/her duties/functions including making further Protected Disclosure.
 - d) The Bank will take steps to minimize difficulties, which the Whistle Blower may experience because of making the Protected Disclosure.
- 5.2 The identity of the Whistle Blower shall be kept confidential at all times, unless as required under applicable laws and regulations or to the extent required to be disclosed to the Investigation Officers and the team carrying out the investigation into the matter specified in the Protected Disclosure
- 5.3 Bank will protect any other Employee/Third Party assisting in the said investigation or furnishing evidence to the same extent as the Whistle Blower.
- 5.4 Protection under this Policy is available provided that:
- a) The communication/disclosure is made in good faith;
 - b) Whistle Blower is not acting for personal gain or animosity against the Subject.
- 5.5 If any person is aggrieved by any action on the ground that he/she is being victimized due to the fact that he/she filed a complaint or protected disclosure, he/she may file an application before the Chief of Internal Vigilance or Head Human Resources.

The protections available under this Policy will not be extended in the following circumstances:

- a. Whistle Blowers, who make any Protected Disclosures, which have been subsequently found to be mala fide, frivolous or malicious, shall be liable to disciplinary action under Bank's Code of Conduct.
- b. If the Whistleblower is found guilty of any misconduct (with respect to the Protected Disclosure or otherwise).
- c. If any adverse action has been taken against the Whistleblower which is independent of his/her disclosure under this Policy or alleged wrongful conduct, poor job performance, any other disciplinary action, etc. unrelated to a disclosure made pursuant to this Policy.

7.0 Investigation

7.1 In this regard, the Vigilance team may perform all such acts as it may deem fit at its sole discretion, including, but not limited to the following functions:

- a) obtain legal or expert view in relation to Protected Disclosure.
- b) appoint external agency to assist in investigation.
- c) seek assistance of internal auditors.

- d) seek explanation or solicit Subject's submission on Protected Disclosure or give reasonable opportunity to respond to Subject on material findings contained in an investigation report.
 - e) Request for any information /document and explanation from any employee of the Bank or Third parties as they may deem appropriate for the purpose of conducting an investigation.
 - f) In case, Vigilance is unable to complete the enquiry/investigation within prescribed timeline, interim report should be submitted to the stakeholders giving inter alia, the tentative date of completion.
 - g) Any inquiry/ investigation conducted against any subject shall not be construed by itself as an act of accusation and shall be carried out as neutral fact finding process, without presumption of any guilt.
 - h) The inquiry/ investigation shall be conducted in a fair manner and provide adequate opportunity for hearing to the affected party and a written report of the findings should be prepared for submission.
 - i) In case the Protected disclosure made does not have any specific & verifiable information, the Chief of Internal Vigilance V is authorized not to take any action. This would be suitably recorded and placed before the Board/ACB ("Audit Committee of the Board").
 - j) In case of repeated frivolous complaints being filed by a Director or an employee or other person allowed under this Whistle Blower Policy, the ACB / relevant authority may take suitable action against the concerned Director or employee or such other including reprimand. The ACB would be kept informed about such incidents.
- 7.2 Subject shall co-operate with the investigator as per Banks Code of Conduct and not interfere or obstruct with the investigation process.
- 7.3 On completion of the investigation report where outcome of investigation is "no fraud" such reports will be issued to the respective Business Heads, Senior Management.
- 7.4 The report normally contains the investigation results, findings and its conclusion including confirmation on employee wrongdoing or not and an appropriate recommendation for action.
- 7.5 On completion of the investigation report where outcome of investigation is "fraud by Persons / Entities and its Promoters / Whole-time and Executive Director", below process would be followed:

- i. Based on the draft investigation report, Principal of Natural Justice would be followed, and a “Show Cause Notice (SCN)” would be issued to “Persons / Entities” informing them that reporting of a fraud is being contemplated.
 - ii. The “Persons / Entities” would be provided a time frame of 21 days from date of issuance of SCN to review and respond.
 - iii. On receipt of response of SCN, examination of the responses / submissions made by the Persons / Entities would be reviewed by independently by another team member. If the submissions / evidence indicates no involvement of the “Persons / Entities”, the draft report would be updated accordingly. However, in case of no incremental information / submission a reasoned order would be prepared. Also, in case of non-response on SCN, accordingly a reasoned order would be prepared.
 - iv. A reasoned order would be served to the “Persons / Entities” conveying the decision of the bank regarding declaration / classification of the account as fraud.
- 7.6 Conduct Investigation within prescribed timeline from the date of receipt of complaint. Outlined below are the investigation timelines:
- For “No- Fraud Cases”
- a. All Non- Advances cases to be investigated within three months.
 - b. All Advance cases with sanction value up to INR 1 crore to be investigated in three months.
 - c. All Advance cases with sanction value above INR 1 crore to be investigated in six months.
- For “Fraud Cases”
- a. Draft report would be issued within three months for non- advances and six months for advances where outcome of investigation is “fraud by Persons / Entities and its Promoters / Whole-time and Executive Director”.
 - b. Final report would be issued within thirty days of issuance of draft report.
- 7.7 Once the enquiry is convened, the investigator shall make an assessment on the Protected Disclosure whether the Bank has a duty to make a report to any regulatory or enforcement authority under any law or regulation.
- 7.8 Once an investigation is complete, a detailed report shall be prepared after completion of the Investigation and shall include appropriate recommendation for the management to take action on the Subject. The report shall be placed by the management at MDAC meeting for review by the members of the respective committee. The ACB or MDAC may suggest suitable action against the Subject, as it deems necessary. Provided that if any of the members of the ACB or MDAC have a conflict of interest in a given case, they should recuse themselves and the others on the ACB or MDAC would deal with the matter on hand. A note would be submitted to ACB on periodic basis.

8.0 Secrecy/Confidentiality

The Whistle Blower, the Subject and Vigilance team and everyone involved in the process shall:

- a. maintain complete confidentiality/ secrecy of the matter.
- b. not discuss the matters in any informal/social gatherings / meetings/social media
- c. discuss only to the extent or with the persons required for the purpose of completing the process and investigations.
- d. Maintain records in a secured environment.
- e. Only Chief of Internal Vigilance and Designated Vigilance official/s can access Protected Disclosure received through written communication and received through Email ID wb@rblbank.com
- f. No other department in the Bank can have access to Protected Disclosure through any mode including access to 'pst' file from backend.

Non-compliance of the above process may lead to disciplinary action by the Bank.

9.0 Reporting

Chief of Internal Vigilance shall report status of all Whistle Blower cases/protected disclosures (including NIL report) to the Audit Committee of the Board, together with results of investigations and an update on the actions taken by the management at least once every year.

10.0 Retention of Documents

All documents including the Investigation reports relating to Protected Disclosures shall be retained by the Bank for a minimum period of 5 (five) years for the date of investigation report or as mentioned in applicable law, if any.
