

Press Release

Vincent Valladares to head RBL Bank's Commercial Banking business

Mumbai, January 9, 2017: RBL Bank, one of India's fastest growing private sector banks, today announced the appointment of Vincent Valladares as Head of Commercial Banking.

Vincent will be responsible for driving RBL Bank's Commercial Banking business which includes the SME and Mid Corporate segments i.e. companies with revenues under Rs. 2000 Cr. He will report directly to the MD & CEO.

A veteran in the banking industry, Vincent has been associated with Citibank in India and the Middle East for 22 years. Prior to joining RBL Bank, he was Managing Director, Middle East, and Head of the bank's Commercial Banking division.

Welcoming the appointment, RBL Bank MD and CEO Vishwavir Ahuja said, "Vincent will be an important pillar of our leadership team. His rich experience both within India and internationally in understanding complex banking and financial products and services, in the current digital environment, makes him the right choice to head our Commercial Banking business."

Vincent is a B.Tech in Petrochemical Engineering and has a Masters in Management Studies from JBIMS, Mumbai.